

The Employment and Labor Law Practice
Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Program presents:

Righting Wrongs – Employers' Roles in Implementing Change after #MeToo

Please join us for a free, in person, 90 minute program presented by Regina E. Faul, Chair of Phillips Nizer's Employment and Labor Law Practice. The program intends to provide insight to lawyers about the changing NYS and NYC laws addressing sexual harassment and other workplace issues, and also provide information that lawyers can use to recognize issues for their clients.

Sponsored by:

SIGNATURE BANK®

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2018

8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.* | Continental Breakfast Provided

Registration, Breakfast and Networking from 8 to 8:30. Program is from 8:30 to 10am. Seating is limited, please register early. This course is suitable for experienced attorneys. Application for New York accreditation of this program (for 1.5 CLE credit in Skills) is currently pending.*

Please direct your RSVP by November 20th to: events@phillipsnizer.com

You must reference November 28 8-10am CLE in the subject line of the RSVP

Phillips Nizer LLP | 485 Lexington Avenue | New York, NY 10017

Between 46th and 47th Streets. Government-issued photo I.D. required for check-in in the lobby.