The Non-Profit General Counsel: The Next Frontier for Entertainment Lawyers

(Presented by the Forum's Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts Division)

There are many legal roles in arts and entertainment nonprofits ranging from serving on a board to outside counsel to executive director, president and/or general counsel. Come learn about the most prevalent legal issues and how to juggle many hats in the nonprofit world. Our panelists will also cover the ins and outs of nonprofit board service, a board member's fiduciary role, conflicts of interest policies, board governance and structure, directors and officers insurance, and ethical challenges.

Performing pro bono work is a popular inroad to nonprofit client development and management roles. Learn about opportunities to handle (and limit) pro bono engagements and to separate legal counseling from active board participation and hear about unique career paths to leadership within both small and large impactful nonprofit institutions and organizations.

8:00am-9:30am (CLE #B3) (Nolita 1 – 4th Floor)

Mindfulness as the Cornerstone for Competent Lawyering

A substantial body of research indicates that secular mindfulness, the practice of present-focused, non-judgmental attention, offers a powerful technique for disengaging from habitual, harmful behaviors, including alcohol and drug abuse, workaholism, and compulsive technology use. Particular mindfulness practices can also be used to cultivate greater empathy and compassion, which form important foundations for civility and ethical conduct. In this session, we'll explore the research on these findings and their implications for lawyers, and learn portable practices for implementing these important benefits for a happier, more balanced, and more effective life in the law. May be eligible for California competence issues credit.

Speaker:

- Dan Carlin, Director, Training Program, WarriorOne (Berkeley, CA)

Legal Issues in Live Entertainment III: So It's My Fault? Current Issues in Sport and Entertainment Liability

(Presented by the Forum's Arts & Museums Division and the Theater and Performing Arts Division)

Entertainment and sports events have three things in common: (1) large crowds, (2) exposed seating, and (3) high energy activities. These spectacles have the potential for dangerous, sometimes deadly, consequences: Performers and spectators fall from the rafters; playing fields cause career-ending injuries; fans are trampled; a puck, ball, bat, or work of art becomes a lethal flying object. Take an insider's look at the risks and responsibilities of attending and presenting live events. Understand how the assumption of risk and duty of care impacts the design and marketing of sports and entertainment events. Learn how to advise your clients as panelists guide you through best practices for protecting owners, performers, athletes, and spectators from personal injury and property damage claims.

General Information

Cancellation Policy

Registrants who are unable to attend the Annual Meeting will receive a full refund less a $100 administrative fee if written cancellation is received by September 23, 2016. Cancellations should be sent by email to the ABA Service Center Registration Desk at MeetingCancellations@americanbar.org. No refunds will be granted after September 23, 2016. The Forum will allow substitutions or the registrants will be allowed access to the program materials after the program in lieu of a refund. The ABA reserves the right to cancel or alter any program and assumes no responsibility for personal expenses.

Continuing Legal Education Credit

The ABA directly applies for and ordinarily receives CLE credit for ABA programs in AK, AL, AR, AZ, CA, CO, DE, GA, GU, HI, IA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, MN, MS, MO, MT, NH, NM, NV, NY, NC, ND, OH, OK, OR, PA, PR, SC, TN, TX, UT, VT, VA, VI, WA, WI, and WV. These states sometimes do not approve a program for credit before the program occurs. This course is expected to qualify for 12 credit hours in 60-minute states, (including 1.5 hours of ethics credit) and 15 credit hours in 50-minute states (including 1.5 hours of ethics credit). This transitional program is approved for both newly admitted and experienced attorneys in NY.

Attorneys may be eligible to receive CLE credit through reciprocity or attorney self-submission in other states.

- More information about CLE accreditation in your state

Forum Membership

To encourage registrants to join ABA Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries, the reduced member's tuition rate will be extended to registrants who join the Forum when they register for the meeting. Forum membership dues are $50 for attorneys/associates and free for law students. Membership in the ABA is a prerequisite to Forum membership.

As a Forum member, you will be eligible to join one of its twelve (12) Forum Special Interest Divisions as part of your membership dues. You can choose to be as involved as you like: from simply receiving information and updates to participating in online discussions, or volunteering to participate on substantive working groups.

- More information and download of the Forum's Pathways to Leadership brochure
- If you would like to discuss how you can get involved in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact the Forum leadership or ask to meet face-to-face with a Forum leader during the Annual Meeting.

Tax Deduction for Education Purposes

In the United States, an income tax deduction may be allowed for education expenses undertaken to maintain or improve professional skills. This includes registration, travel, meals and lodging, subject to applicable limitations (see Treas. Reg. 1.162-5: Coughlin v. Commissioner, 203 F.2d 307 (2d Cir.1953)).

Americans with Disabilities Act

If special arrangements are required for disabled individuals to attend this meeting, please contact the Forum staff at ABAESForum@americanbar.org.

Attire

Business casual attire.

Course Materials

Meeting materials and speaker bios will be available at a special "attendees only" webpage on the Forum web site. PLEASE BRING YOUR LAPTOP WITH YOU TO THIS MEETING TO ACCESS THE MATERIALS ONSITE. Meeting course materials will only be made available to registered attendees. You will receive the URL and other pertinent information on or before September 26, 2016 via email.

Privacy Notice

Registration for, attendance at, or participation in the Forum conferences and other associated activities constitutes an agreement by the registrant to permit the American Bar Association to use and distribute (both now and in the future) the registrant or participant's image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions, and audiotapes of such event and activities.
